The testimony of Abraham Drake aged 46 years. — I being at Capt. Pendletons, Nath^t Boulter did demand a copie of account about fifty pounds od money. — That Boulter's hand was to y^r acc^t, & a copie of a memorandum were about y^e sum; y^e copie of y^e ac^t was not denied him, but y^e memorandum had no hand to it, as it was owned, but had relation to a bill or morgage as I conceived by their discourse about y^e sum mentioned. — Sworn before y^e court at Hampton. 9: 8: 66.
